OPTIONAL JORDAN PRE TOUR

October 14-17, 2025

This tour requires 15 people minimum

Price from $1,599
per person/double occupancy
(5 Days/6 Nights)

Days 1–2: Tuesday-Wednesday, Oct. 14-15

Transatlantic Flight • Amman, Jordan

We will take flights from our home cities and arrive in Jordan the following afternoon or evening at the Queen Alia International Airport near Amman. If time allows, we will explore parts of Amman before checking into our hotel for dinner and a good night's rest.

Day 3: Thursday, Oct. 16

Amman • King Abdullah Mosque • Jerash • Jabbok River

After breakfast we will take a drive through Amman, the modern capital of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan, for a city highlights and downtown area tour. Our morning will include a visit to the King Abdullah Mosque, commonly known as the Blue Mosque, for its magnificent blue dome. Here we will dress in culturally appropriate clothing provided for a visit to the mosque, and our Jordanian guide will teach us regarding Moslem worship and the importance of this faith's beliefs and practices. We will ascend to the ancient Amman Citadel for a panoramic view of the expansive city of Amman. As time permits, we will explore the Archaeological Museum and buildings of the Citadel. In the afternoon, we will travel to Jerash. This ancient city invites you to walk back in time 2000 years and is one of the best preserved of the Greco-Roman cities of the Decapolis mentioned in the New Testament (Matt 4:25). Its Cardo displays a spectacular paved street, Agora (marketplace) and an oval plaza enclosed by 160 Ionic columns. As time allows we will explore Hadrian's Arch, a hippodrome, theaters, temples, and churches. Next, we will stop at the Jabbok River, where the patriarch Jacob wrestled with an angel upon returning to the Promised Land. Due to this experience Jacob named this place "Peniel: for I have seen God face to face" (Genesis 32:30). We will discuss the temple ordinance significance of this event, where Jacob was embraced and given the new name, Israel. We will return to our hotel in Amman for dinner.

Day 4: Friday, Oct. 17

Madaba • Mount Nebo • Wadi Musa

In the morning, we will travel to the city of Madaba, to further immerse ourselves in Jordanian culture and to discover some of Jordan's early Christian heritage. We will visit the Byzantine-Christian era, 6th century, St George's Church. The walls are covered with ancient Christian paintings and mosaics on the floor reveal the heralded Madaba Map - the oldest known map of the Holy Land. Following a brief time for shopping in Madaba, we will ascend to Mount Nebo. From this mount, after 40 years in the wilderness, Moses and the Children of Israel had their first view of the Promised Land (Deut. 34:1-4). This high point offers a marvelous view of the Dead Sea, the Jordan River, and surveys the borders of modern-day Israel. Early 4th-century Christians built a sanctuary on Mount Nebo to honor Moses. Later, several churches, and eventually, a Byzantine-era Basilica and monastery were constructed over this site. We will visit Mt. Nebo's sanctuary and see the fascinating archaeological finds of these early Christian churches, including mosaics and a baptismal font. In the afternoon, we will travel south along the "King's Highway," as it was known in ancient times. This route will take us through the heartland of the ancient Plains of Moab (hometown of Ruth in the Old Testament and tribal inheritance of Reuben) and Edom. We will pass the Crusader Karak Castle, and the lands of Bedouin homesteads on the way to our hotel in Wadi Musa near Petra.

Day 5: Saturday, Oct. 18

Petra • Wadi Rum • Aqaba

Early in the morning, we will pass through the Siq, which is a sandstone gorge that leads to the main entrance to the city of Petra (you may choose to travel on foot or in a motorized e-cart). Our first view of the city will be the Treasury (as seen in the movie Indiana Jones and the Last Crusade). We will then be awed by the impressive architecture of ancient Petra, the "rose-red city half as old as time." This unique city, built of sandstone, has beautiful temples, tombs, and amphitheaters carved out of the cliffs which surround the hidden valley. The Nabataean rulers that lived here controlled the frankincense trade routes and lived in Robin Hood-like isolation (robbing from the rich and giving to themselves). As time permits, we will visit the Petra Visitors' Center and Museum. In the afternoon we will journey to the lands associated with the story of Lawrence of Arabia—Wadi Rum. Here we will journey to a Bedouin camp for a camel safari into the desert to see one of the most impressive desert landscapes in the world. This wilderness is untouched with marvelous views and an opportunity to learn about the Bedouin way of life. We will spend the evening at our hotel in Aqaba, a Jordanian resort city on the Red Sea.

Day 6: Sunday, Oct 19

Red Sea • Israel • Jericho

This morning, we will have time to enjoy the beach on the Red Sea. Those who wish, will have the option to snorkel in the beautiful coral reefs. Late morning we will begin our journey north. We will travel near the route of Moses and the Israelites as they prepared to enter the Promised Land. In the early evening, we will say goodbye to Jordan and cross the Jordan River at the King Hussein Bridge to enter Israel. We will continue to the Oasis Hotel in Jericho, "the city of palm trees" (Deut. 34:3), where we will spend the next three nights. At the hotel, we will unite with our fellow travelers who will begin their tour of the Holy Land in Israel.

Main Tour Itinerary

Day 1: Saturday, October 18, 2025

Transatlantic Flight • Israel

We will take flights from our home cities and arrive in Israel the following afternoon or evening at the Ben Gurion International Airport near Tel Aviv. Meals: In-flight

Day 2: Sunday, October 19, 2025

Israel • Jericho

We will then travel to Jericho and a good night's rest in the Oasis Hotel. Meals: Dinner

Day 3: Monday, October 20, 2025

Israel: Bethabara • Jericho • Judean Wilderness

This morning, we will journey to the Jordan River Valley and stop at Bethabara, which is important for several reasons. This is the site of the Lord parting the Jordan River for the Children of Israel's crossing into the Promised Land, Elijah's translation and ascent into heaven, John the Baptist's wilderness ministry, and most importantly, the site of the Savior's baptism. We will then visit Jericho, touted as the oldest city on earth and nearly 850 feet below sea level. We will have lunch and afterward visit the archaeological dig of tel-Jericho, the ancient Old Testament city miraculously conquered by Joshua and the Children of Israel. We will take cable cars to the Mt of Temptation Monastery (Jebel Quarantul), built to remember the 40 days that the Savior fasted in the Judean Wilderness. We will then take a short journey to Wadi Qelt to see the Judean Wilderness, where the Savior spent 40 days with His Father, while fasting, and afterward was tempted of the Devil. Here we will also observe the scene of the parable of the Good Samaritan; and discuss the area where the Prophet Elijah lodged during much of the 3½ year drought he brought by sealing the heavens from rain. In the evening, we will rest and relax in our hotel in Jericho. Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

Day 4: Tuesday, October 21, 2025

Masada • Qumran • Dead Sea

Our morning drive will take us south along the Dead Sea, the lowest point on the earth's surface. Here we will take a cable car to the top of Masada, King Herod's ancient plateau palatial fortress. From high above the Dead Sea, Masada is best known as the location of a Roman siege against Jewish Sicarii in AD 74. As we drive north, we will stop at Qumran for a walk-through of the ruins of the mystic Jewish sect of the Essenes. Here we will discuss the importance of this unique society and their connections to the Dead Sea Scrolls. Ending this eventful day, we will have the opportunity for one of the most unusual floating experiences of a lifetime at the Dead Sea. In the evening, we will rest and relax in our hotel in Jericho. Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

Day 5: Wednesday, October 22, 2025

Beit Shean • Sea of Galilee • Capernaum • Tabgha • Magdala

Our morning drive will take us north up the Jordan River Valley to Beit Shean National Park, where we will visit the most complete ruins of a Roman city in all Israel, known as Scythopolis. We will learn of the Roman cities of the Decapolis visited by the Savior in His mortal ministry. We will continue north along the Sea of Galilee to the site of ancient Capernaum, where Jesus stayed at Peter's home during His Galilean ministry, site of many of His miracles and healings, and of His "Bread of Life" sermon within its synagogue. After lunch, if there is time, we will travel to Tabgha, where a mosaic commemorates Jesus' feeding the five thousand with a few fishes and loaves, and St. Peter's Primacy, remembering the Savior's commission to Peter to feed His lambs. Our next visit will be to Magdala, considered to be the hometown of Mary Magdalene, where there are remains of an ancient synagogue and special chapels dedicated to the women of the New Testament gospels. As time allows, we will visit the Valley of the Doves located beneath Mount Arbel, following the path that Jesus took from the Sea of Galilee to the area of Nazareth. Concluding this wonderful day, we will return to our Ein Gev to rest and relax; you may even wish to swim in the Sea of Galilee. Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

Day 6: Thursday, October 23, 2025

Sea of Galilee • Mount of Beatitudes • Caesarea Philippi

Our day will begin with a boat ride on the Sea of Galilee followed by a visit to the boat museum, where an ancient fishing boat from New Testament times has been preserved. We will then ascend to the Mount of Beatitudes, the traditional site of the Sermon on the Mount, where we will have the opportunity to contemplate the Savior's teachings concerning our discipleship. We will continue to travel north to Baniyas, ancient Caesarea Philippi, at the foot of Mount Hermon, where Peter declared his testimony that Jesus is the Christ and the Only Begotten Son of God. On the Golan Heights, we will stop at Mount Bental to view nearby Syria. We will travel through Druze villages and stop at Birket Ram. At the end of the day, we will return to our hotel at Ein Gev. Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

Day 7: Friday, October 24, 2025

Mount Tabor • Nazareth • Jezreel Valley • Caesarea • Jerusalem

We will begin our day traveling to the base of "an high mountain apart" (Matt. 17:1) and take taxicabs to the top of Mount Tabor, the probable site of Christ's transfiguration during the visit of Moses and Elijah to confer priesthood keys upon Peter, James, and John. We will travel to the city of Nazareth, the boyhood home of Jesus, where we will visit the Nazareth Village, developed to show life as it existed at the time of Jesus. Here we will reflect on His early life, his homecoming to preach at the synagogue of His hometown, and enjoy a traditional first-century lunch. Next, we will visit the Church of the Annunciation, built over the traditional site of Mary's home and the visit from the angel Gabriel, and the Church of Joseph, built over the traditional site of Joseph and Mary's home after they returned to Nazareth from Egypt. We will drive through Jezreel Valley to the Mediterranean Sea coast for a visit to Caesarea Maritima.

Here the apostle Peter taught and baptized the first gentiles to become Christians, and the apostle Paul gave his stirring testimony of Christ before King Agrippa. Lastly, we will ascend to Jerusalem, where we stay at the Leonardo Hotel for our remaining time in Jerusalem. After dinner we will visit the Western Wall as the Jewish people welcome Shabbat. Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

BYU Jerusalem Center • Bethlehem

We will begin our first Sabbath Day in Jerusalem, arriving early to tour the grounds and then attending sacrament meeting on the Mount of Olives at the BYU Jerusalem Center for Near Eastern Studies with its auditorium's spectacular view of Jerusalem. Following our Sabbath worship meeting, we will travel to nearby Bethlehem, where we will have a delicious traditional Palestinian meal. After lunch we will visit the Church of the Nativity and Manger Square to see the traditional site of the grotto in which the Savior of the world was born into mortality. Afterward, we will visit the Latin Shepherds' Field to contemplate the angelic proclamation given to the shepherds that the Messiah had been born in the City of David. On our return to Jerusalem, we will drive past the Herodion, a mount that served as a fortress for Herod the Great, and where many scholars believe he was buried. In the evening, we will return to the hotel. Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 9: Sunday, October 26, 2025

Jerusalem—City of David • Old City • Bethany

We will begin our exploration of Jerusalem with a visit to the Old Testament City of David, which also includes ruins from the time of the prophets Jeremiah and Lehi. We will then enter Hezekiah's Tunnel and wade through this exciting third-of-a-mile historic marvel that provided water during the Assyrian siege of Jerusalem in the time of King Hezekiah and Isaiah. (Those who wish to may choose to walk through the ancient dry tunnel.) At the end of this exciting experience, we will sit around the newly excavated Pool of Siloam and share the account of the Savior healing the man born blind and sending him to go to this pool to wash his eyes. We will orient ourselves from various viewpoints of Jerusalem from Seven Arches Hotel Overlook. We will enter the Old City through Jaffa Gate and walk through the Christian Quarter to the area known as the Muristan, where we will have lunch. After lunch we will visit the Church of the Holy Sepulchre with its many chapels. We will then walk through the Jewish Quarter to the Roman Cardo, which was originally built by the Roman emperor Hadrian, and see Hezekiah's Broad Wall, built as a defense against the Assyrian armies. We will drive to the east side of the Mount of Olives to the Palestinian city of Bethany, where we will visit the traditional tomb of Lazarus and site of the home where he lived with his sisters, Mary and Martha. After an exciting day we will return to the hotel. Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

Day 10: Monday, October 27, 2025

Temple Mount • Model City and Shrine of the Book • Yad Vashem

Early in the morning we will enter the Old City to tour the Holy Mount, or Mount Moriah—known as the Temple Mount to the Jews—site of the temples of Solomon and Herod, and referred to as the Haram al Sharif, or the Noble Sanctuary by the Moslems—a location of the magnificent Dome of the Rock and the El Aqsa Mosque. At the foot of the Temple Mount, we will visit the Davidson Archeological Center, where we see the ancient temple stones thrown over the Temple Mount onto the Roman road below, and visit the ancient steps and gates that led to the temple. After lunch in the Jewish Quarter of the Old City, we will travel to the Israeli Museum to see the Model City, which is a scale model of Jerusalem at the time of the Savior, and visit the Shrine of the Book, which displays items from the Dead Sea Scrolls. In the mid-afternoon, we will travel to nearby Yad Vashem, a premier museum dedicated to the Jewish Holocaust. Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

Day 11: Tuesday, October 28, 2025

Bethphage • Mount of Olives • Gethsemane • Orson Hyde Memorial Gardens • Mount Zion • Pool of Bethesda • Via Dolorosa

On this full, but special day, we will commemorate the Savior's last week in mortality while walking in His footsteps. We begin with a visit to Bethphage, located on the back side of the Mount of Olives, where the Savior began his Triumphal Entry into Jerusalem riding upon the foal of an ass. We will next visit the Pater Noster Church, which has the Lord's Prayer inscribed upon the walls in 140 languages and is the traditional location of Christ's instructions to His apostles regarding the destruction of Jerusalem and the signs of His Second Coming. We will then descend the Mount of Olives to Dominus Flevit, near where Christ wept over Jerusalem. If it is open, we will visit the Russian Orthodox Church of Mary Magdalene and then continue down the path to the Garden of Gethsemane and the Church of All Nations; At the foot of the Mount of Olives we will visit the Orson Hyde Memorial Gardens with its magnificent views of the Old City and the Kidron Valley.

In the afternoon we will visit the probable site of the Palace of Caiaphas the high priest, where the Savior was illegally tried after His arrest. The modern church of St. Peter in Gallicantu is the traditional site of Peter's denial of knowing Jesus of Nazareth. This area of Mount Zion provides an excellent overlook of Aceldama and Hinnom Valley, symbolic of hell in Old Testament times. We will enter the Old City through Herod's Gate to visit the Church of St. Anne, marking the traditional site of the home of Jesus' maternal grandparents and where Mary was born. Nearby is the Pool of Bethesda, where on a Sabbath the Savior healed a lame man who had waited years for help into the pool's healing waters. We will walk the traditional Via Dolorosa, commemorating the Savior's path during the last hours of His life. We will begin near Antonia Fortress, where Jesus was sentenced to be crucified. According to interest and time, we will visit or point out the following on the Via Dolorosa: Church of Condemnation, Antonia Pavement, Sisters of Zion Convent, and Ecce Homo arch. We will return for our final night at the hotel. Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

Day 12: Wednesday, October 29, 2025

Gethsemane • Garden Tomb • Jerusalem

We will begin this day of special remembrance by entering a private garden on the Mount of Olives in the area of the Garden of Gethsemane. We will conclude our morning at the Garden Tomb. Here we will see Gordon's Calvary, a proposed site for Golgotha and the Savior's crucifixion. Nearby we will see a rock-hewn tomb in a garden where here, or somewhere nearby, the body of Christ was interred and from which He arose on that glorious resurrection morn.

Our final afternoon in Jerusalem will be free to shop and visit optional sites (we have a list of suggestions to choose from according to your preferences as time allows (such as a view from the rooftops of the homes in the Old City, David's Citadel Museum, the Rampart Walk around the walls of the Old City, the Third Temple Institute, the Hurva Synagogue, and the four Sephardic synagogues with their Jewish traditions regarding Elijah's return, etc.). After dinner and final packing at our hotel, we will travel to the Ben-Gurion Airport for our scheduled flights home. Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

Day 13: Thursday, October 30, 2025
