Day 1: Saturday, March 6, 2027

U.S.A. to Buenos Aires, Argentina

Depart home cities for an overnight flight to Buenos Aires, Argentina. Meals: In-flight

Day 2: Sunday, March 7, 2027

Arrival in Buenos Aires

Upon arrival in Buenos Aires, we will be welcomed and transferred to your hotel, where early check-in has been arranged for your comfort. In the afternoon, enjoy a comprehensive city tour designed to introduce you to the heart and soul of the Argentine capital. The tour begins at Plaza de Mayo, a landmark square that has witnessed many of the country's most important political events. From there, continue to San Telmo, a charming, historic district known for its cobblestone streets, colonial architecture, antique shops, and artists' ateliers. You will then head south to the colorful neighborhood of La Boca, where the famous Caminito Street awaits with its open-air museum filled with brightly painted houses and lively artistic displays. The tour continues to Puerto Madero, once the city's old port and now a sophisticated waterfront district home to elegant restaurants and modern design. Moving into the northern part of the city, you will explore Recoleta, admired for its Parisian-style avenues, luxurious palaces, upscale boutiques, and the historic Recoleta Cemetery. The afternoon concludes in Palermo, the city's largest district, known for its expansive parks, vibrant dining scene, and beautiful French-style mansions. A welcome lunch at a local restaurant will be included during your tour. The evening is at leisure. Overnight in Buenos Aires.

Meals: Lunch

Day 3: Monday, March 8, 2027

Buenos Aires to Iguazu Falls

This morning, we will transfer to the airport for your flight to Iguazú Falls, one of the world's most awe-inspiring natural wonders. Upon arrival, enjoy a guided visit through the three main circuits of Iguazú National Park. The Upper Circuit offers sweeping panoramic views of the waterfalls, while the Lower Circuit brings you closer to the lush vegetation, wildlife, and powerful cascades. The highlight of the day is the unforgettable visit to the Devil's Throat, a massive U-shaped waterfall where the Iguazú River plunges with breathtaking force, creating mist, thunder, and a scene unlike anything else in the world. Your visit will also include the Gran Aventura boat tour, an exhilarating experience that takes you right up to the base of the falls for an incredible and immersive encounter with nature's power. Lunch included. Overnight accommodations.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 4: Tuesday, March 9, 2027

Iguazu Falls to Buenos Aires, Argentina

After breakfast, transfer to the airport for our return flight to Buenos Aires. Upon arrival, we will be taken directly to the cruise terminal to begin embarkation for our South America cruise. Once on board, settle into your stateroom and enjoy the convenience of having the ship remain in Buenos Aires overnight. This gives you the freedom to head back into the city at your leisure to explore more of its vibrant neighborhoods, cafés, and culture.

In the evening, you are welcome to join our optional private shore excursion: a Dinner and Tango Show, exclusively arranged for our group. This experience offers an unforgettable introduction to Argentina's most iconic art form, blending world-class cuisine with the passion and elegance of tango. Whether you choose to relax on board, explore independently, or take part in our private excursion, you'll have ample time to savor the charm and energy of Buenos Aires before we begin our South American adventure. Meals: Lunch, Dinner

Day 5: Thursday, April 16, 2026

Buenos Aires

Enjoy a full day to experience the magic of Buenos Aires before your voyage begins. From the elegant architecture of Recoleta to the colorful streets of La Boca, the city offers endless opportunities to discover its charm. You might explore the historic Plaza de Mayo, visit the grand Teatro Colón, or relax at a café watching locals dance the tango. Indulge in a leisurely lunch featuring authentic Argentine flavors and soak up the city's vibrant energy. The ship departs at 6:00 p.m., so please plan to return on board early to ensure a smooth departure as your South American journey officially begins. Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 6: Thursday, March 11, 2027

Montevideo

Spend the day exploring Montevideo, Uruguay's elegant yet laid-back capital. Wander through the Ciudad Vieja, the city's beautifully preserved Old Town filled with art galleries, open-air markets, and historic landmarks that tell the story of Uruguay's rich past. Stroll along the scenic Rambla, a sunlit waterfront promenade stretching for miles along the Río de la Plata, and take in the sea breeze before relaxing at a charming café or wine bar. With its graceful blend of European sophistication and South

American warmth, Montevideo offers an unforgettable glimpse into Uruguay's easygoing charm. Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 7: Friday, March 12, 2027

Day at Sea

Relax and enjoy the many amenities of the Oosterdam—from elegant dining and live entertainment to spa treatments and ocean views. A perfect day to recharge as you sail toward your next adventure. Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

Day 8: Saturday, March 13, 2027

At Sea

Today, the Oosterdam charts her course toward the Falkland Islands. Savor a leisurely day at sea, where you can unwind poolside, attend a fascinating presentation, or enjoy a delicious meal while gazing out at the endless South Atlantic. It's the ideal time to recharge and prepare for the adventures ahead.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 9: Sunday, March 14, 2027

Stanley/Falkland Island (Islas Malvinas)

Step ashore in Stanley, the charming capital of the Falkland Islands. This remote British outpost offers colorful tin-roofed houses, friendly locals, and fascinating maritime history. Explore the town's museums and shops, or join an excursion to see the islands' incredible wildlife—penguins, seals, and seabirds are often spotted just beyond the city limits. The rugged landscapes and windswept beauty of the Falklands make this a truly unforgettable stop on your South American journey.

Day 10: Monday, March 15, 2027

Scenic Cruising Cape Horn

Experience one of the world's most legendary sea passages as the Oosterdam cruises around Cape Horn, the dramatic headland at the southern tip of South America where the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans meet. Once known as a perilous route for sailors, Cape Horn is now a breathtaking sight of rugged cliffs, wild seas, and untamed beauty. From the ship's deck, take in panoramic views and reflect on the courage of the early explorers who braved these waters centuries ago. Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Ushuaia

Welcome to Ushuaia, the world's southernmost city, dramatically set between the snowcapped Andes and the icy waters of the

Beagle Channel. Often called the “End of the World,” this frontier town is the gateway to the wild beauty of Tierra del Fuego National Park, where mountains, forests, and glacial valleys meet. Step aboard the Train to the End of the World, a historic narrow-gauge railway once used by prisoners to haul timber, now offering breathtaking views of rivers, waterfalls, and rugged peaks. After exploring this extraordinary landscape, return to the Oosterdam for an unforgettable afternoon of scenic cruising through the Beagle Channel and Glacier Alley, where towering ice formations and shimmering blue glaciers create one of nature’s most awe-inspiring spectacles. Meals: Breakfast, Dinner

Day 12: Wednesday, March 17, 2027

Scenic Cruising Glacier Alley

After departing Ushuaia, the Oosterdam sails through the legendary Beagle Channel, entering the stunning stretch known as Glacier Alley. Here, towering walls of ice cascade from the Darwin Range into the sea, their blue hues shifting with the light. Named after European countries—Holland, Italy, France, Germany, and Spain—each glacier is a spectacle of nature’s artistry. From the deck, enjoy panoramic views of these magnificent formations and listen for the distant crackle of ice calving into the water—an unforgettable highlight of your South American journey.

Day 13: Thursday, March 18, 2027

Scenic Cruise Sarmiento Channel

Sail through the Sarmiento Channel, one of Chile’s most stunning Patagonian waterways. Framed by snowcapped peaks and glacier-fed fjords, this narrow passage offers breathtaking views at every turn. As the Oosterdam glides through the still waters, admire the towering ice walls of the Serrano and Amalia Glaciers, and watch for sea lions, dolphins, and seabirds along the way. The dramatic landscapes of the Sarmiento Channel capture the essence of Chile’s wild southern frontier. Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Scenic Cruise Cockburn Channel

Continue your journey through the breathtaking Cockburn Channel, where the Pacific and Atlantic waters weave between rugged islands and towering mountain peaks. As the Oosterdam sails through this remote and majestic passage, you’ll be surrounded by glaciers spilling into turquoise fjords and untouched Patagonian wilderness. The calm waters and dramatic scenery make this one of the most captivating stretches of Chile’s southern coastline.

Day 15: Saturday, March 20, 2027

Scenic Cruise Pío XI Glacier

Witness the grandeur of Pío XI Glacier, also known as Brüggen Glacier—the largest glacier in the Southern Hemisphere outside Antarctica. Stretching more than 60 miles in length, this colossal river of ice descends from the Southern Patagonian Ice Field into the fjords of Chile. From the comfort of the Oosterdam, marvel at the glacier's towering blue walls and listen for the thunderous echo of ice calving into the sea. It's a breathtaking encounter with one of nature's most powerful creations.

Scenic Cruising Darwin Channel

Continue your journey through the breathtaking Darwin Channel, a serene passage lined with snowcapped peaks, dense forests, and pristine fjords. Named after the famed naturalist Charles Darwin, this remote stretch of Patagonia showcases Chile's wild southern beauty at its most untouched. As the Oosterdam glides through tranquil waters, keep watch for dolphins, sea lions, and seabirds that thrive in this unspoiled marine sanctuary.

Day 17: Monday, March 22, 2027

Puerto Montt, Chile

Arrive in Puerto Montt, the gateway to Chile's enchanting Lake District. Founded by German settlers in the mid-19th century, this charming port city beautifully blends European character with authentic Patagonian warmth. Venture to the nearby lakeside town of Puerto Varas, where alpine-style architecture and sweeping views of the snowcapped Osorno Volcano create postcard-perfect scenery. Back in Puerto Montt, stroll through the bustling Ángelmo Market, alive with the scent of the sea and the color of local crafts, seafood stalls, and handmade treasures. Framed by emerald lakes, dense forests, and distant volcanic peaks, Puerto Montt offers a memorable finale to your Chilean adventure before the journey north continues. Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

At Sea

Enjoy a final relaxing day at sea as the Oosterdam sails north along Chile's coastline toward Santiago. Take in sweeping ocean views, attend a presentation or indulge in one last spa treatment. It's the perfect opportunity to unwind, reflect on your incredible South American journey, and savor the comfort and hospitality that have accompanied you throughout your voyage.

San Antonio (Santiago), Chile

This morning, the Oosterdam arrives in San Antonio, the gateway port to Santiago, Chile's lively and sophisticated capital. After breakfast, we'll disembark and bid farewell to our home at sea. Our group will continue together on a full-day post-cruise tour of Viña del Mar and Valparaíso, a beautiful way to extend our journey and experience the spirit of Chile. Viña del Mar, known as the garden city, charms visitors with its coastal elegance and role as one of South America's favorite summer resorts. Nearby Valparaíso, Chile's most historic port and a UNESCO World Heritage Site, unfolds across colorful hillsides, where winding streets, cliffside homes, and traditional funiculars create an unforgettable landscape. A farewell lunch is included, and our day concludes with a convenient transfer to the Santiago airport for our evening flight back to the United States.

Arrival in your home city with memories to last a lifetime.
